

Bride

Wedding vows are the best way to let your partner understand as what you feel for her/him.

List of considerations for your vows:

What qualities do you love about your soon to be?

What are 3 things that inspire you about each other?

What qualities do you believe will keep your marriage strong?

How will you accomplish that?

What promises do you want to make for your life together?

How do you complement one another with your differences in personality?

What have you learned from each other?

When and where did you meet?

At what moment did you realize you were in love? How did it feel?

How were you proposed too? What was your response?

What song was playing when you knew each other was the one?

Do you have a poem or song that make you think of your love?

What lyrics or lines mean the most to you?

Groom

Wedding vows are the best way to let your partner understand as what you feel for her/him.

List of considerations for your vows:

What qualities do you love about your soon to be?

What are 3 things that inspire you about each other?

What qualities do you believe will keep your marriage strong?

How will you accomplish that?

What promises do you want to make for your life together?

How do you complement one another with your differences in personality?

What have you learned from each other?

When and where did you meet?

At what moment did you realize you were in love? How did it feel?

How did you propose? What was your response when she answered?

What song was playing when you knew each other was the one?

Do you have a poem or song that make you think of your love?

What lyrics or lines mean the most to you?